Bio

Lindholm received his BFA, cum laude, from Knox College in Galesburg, IL. He later moved to New York City where, from 1996 to 1998, he attended the New York Studio School of Drawing, Painting and Sculpture. In 2004, Lindholm received his MFA in Painting at the American University in Washington, D.C. He has been the recipient of the Milton Avery scholarship in Art and the Beverly Creighton scholarship, and was a Post Baccalaureate fellow in art education at Knox College. He has been a guest lecturer and assistant instructor at the Delaware College of Art and Design, York College, Corcoran College of Art and Design and American University. Residencies include the Vermont Studio Center, Pyramid Atlantic Center for Printmaking and the Charles Cecil Studio in Florence, Italy. His work has been exhibited in New York City, Washington, D.C., Baltimore, Beijing, and New Dehli. He currently lives and works in Washington, D.C.

Since 2000, I have held appointments as a drawing, painting and design instructor around Washington D.C. and at Delaware College of Art and Design. I was a Youth Mentor for the Corcoran (2000-2002). I have also been an Art Handler for US Art Co, HMB Art Transfer and ArtDC (2004-2007), an interior design installation assistant with Lisa Vandenburg, Ltd. (2005-2007), as well as a Course Supervisor of professional adult education courses for Landmark Education (2004-2007).
